New Members Elected to Board of Directors

Andrew Dollinger, Heather Keys and Donald Zrebiec have been elected to the East House Board of Directors. Dollinger, a Brighton resident, is Associate Broker for CB Richard Ellis. He is immediate past President of the Brighton Chamber of Commerce, and became familiar with East House when the Chamber collected toys, hats and gloves for East House clients and their children during the holidays.

Heather Keys of Pittsford, is Principal at KeySolutions of New York, LLC. Heather has served as a volunteer on the Development Committee for East House for two years and is also chairperson of the upcoming Hope and Recovery Celebration luncheon to take place September 30th.

Donald Zrebiec, of Fairport, is retired as Vice President of Human Resources for Xerox Corporation. He is past Board Chair of St. John's Senior Services, and a past Board member of Rochester Institute of Technology. He has served on the East House Development Committee for the past six months.
