

June 9, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Anne McKenna, Director of Development and Community Relations
(585) 256-3800, ext. 231

East House Corporation Elects New Board Members

Rachel Jordan, Rosie Madison and Justin Runke have been elected to the East House Board of Directors.

Rachel Jordan, Ph.D., LMHC., NCC., is Program Director and Assistant Director of Mental Health Counseling at St. John Fisher College. She is also a Mental Health Counselor for the Sexual Behaviors Treatment Program in Clifton Springs. She has served on the East House Program Review Committee since 2008, and also serves on the St. John Fisher College Strategic Planning Committee, the Rochester Area Person-Centered Association as Coordinating Committee Chair, and has served in the New York Mental Health Counselors Association as Ethics Committee Chair since 2008.

Rosie Madison of Fairport, is retired after thirty-two years in marketing management for Xerox Corporation; having most recently served as Vice President of Industry Marketing. She has served on the East House Development and Community Relations Committee for the past year.

Justin Runke is an attorney with Harris Beach, PLLC. He practices in the Corporate Practice Group and serves on the Health Care Providers and Science and Technology Commercialization Industry Teams. Runke is a member of the New York State and Monroe County Bar Associations. He is also an author of the 2003 HIPAA Privacy Guide.

Founded in 1966, East House is a private, non-profit rehabilitation agency, that provides residential, rehabilitation and career services to individuals recovering from mental illness and/or chemical dependency. East House serves more than 1,000 clients and their families each year and is funded by New York State, Monroe County, United Way, client fees and donations. For more information, call 256-3800, ext. 231.

#